P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the printing trade in the United States has contributed much to improve the American way of life through the use of the printed word; and

WHEREAS, commemoration should be made on the 257th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, January 17, 1706, in Boston; and

WHEREAS, Franklin was a printer in his early life, and on his retirement from the printing business, he devoted the remainder of his life to serving his country as a diplomat, inventor, scientist, and primarily, a patriot; and

WHEREAS, January 13-19 has been designated as the 35th annual Printing Week throughout the United States, and it will be observed by the printing plants in South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 13-19, 1963, as

and do call upon the citizens of the state to appropriately pay tribute to the memory of Benjamin Franklin, one of America's foremost printers and statesmen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed this 3rd day of December, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two.

Archie Gubbrud
